WITH THE LADY TENPIN EXPERTS.

Many Clubs Will Entertain the Fair Bowlers on the Alleys This Week.

The Puritan Bowling Club, which orranized in the beginning of October, 1902, and holds its meetings at Puritan Hall, 159 West Thirtieth street, held its first ladies' night last Tuesday. The sileys were prettily decorated with flags and

The sport of the evening commenced with a match game between the married and single men. The single men with the add of two married men, to make the AMERICAN LEAGUE sides even, came out on top of the heap by two pins. Then the ladies tried their st to out-roll one another in a little actice game, after which they bowled

Supper was served at 12 o'clock and Capt. Roeber gave the toast of the club. Short speeches followed by Secretary George Watson, President M. Goldwater, Treasurer J. Kissling, and Vice-President Senator Munzinger.

The early hours of morning were spent by the members of the club in bowling for a prize pig. There was some good music and a little dancing, every one leaving the alley being thoroughly contributed that the Puritans were "all tight."

The Hancock Bowling Club will celebrate its ladies' night on Tuesday. The arrangements are in the hands of Gus Richter, President of the viub.

The gentlemen's night given by the Walkueren Ladles' Bowling Club on Sunday was one of the most successful affairs ever given by this popular ful affairs ever given by this popular forkville club. Mrs. Gundrum, the President of the club, and Mrs. Lebmann, the Secretary, attended to all the preliminary arrangements. Handsome prizes were provided for the gentlemen and this acted like a magnet upon the bowling element of the sterner sex. The prize contest was scheduled to commence at 7 o'clock, but at 6 P. M. nearly all of the invited guests had arrived.

Appeals of Kentucky will give a decision as arrived.

No time was wasted in arranging the details of the contest and the men were soon doing their pretitest on the alleys in their endeavors to win one of the prizes offered by the club.

The first prize went to Mr. Corbean, a dark horse whom nobody figured had a chance in the game. "Billy" Lehnann, the old war horse of The Clipper Club, won second prize. "Ruddie" Kompass got the third, while Leomhardt, the plumber, got fourth prize; the fifth prize went to Kessier, the Rosedale and Pan-American crack; the sixth prize went to Ressier, the Rosedale and Pan-American crack; the sixth prize went to Ressier. Then followed Modurray. Ernest Holler, Noldstein, Miller and Abrams.

Tom Sharkey started for West Baden last night, where he intends to get into condition for the contest. He was accompanied by Jack McCormick, the heavy-weight fighter, of Philadelphia.

Before leaving Sharkey notified his manager, Barney Reich, to post a forfeit of $2,500 to-day to bind the match with the big miner just as soon as the latter arrives in town. Reich will do as bid this morning.

Sharkey is not the only fighter who will have a forfeit posted by the time Munroe arrives here. Gus Ruhilm and "Kid" McCoy are the other men who have put up their cash for the purpose of arranging a match with the miner. Ruhiln has put up $1,000, while McCoy has posted $2,500.
